1. INTRODUCTION

- 1.1. Curo Fund Services (Pty) Ltd (“Curo”) is an authorised Financial Services Provider (FSP) in terms of the Financial Advisory & Intermediary Service Act, No. 37 of 2002 (“FAIS”) and regulated by the Financial Sector Conduct Authority (“FSCA”). As an authorized FSP, with FSP number 42790, Curo complies with the requirements prescribed under FAIS.
- 1.2. Curo is committed to ensuring that all business is conducted in accordance with good business practice and relevant legislation. In order to promote effective governance, it is necessary to ensure that all affected parties are educated and empowered to understand and access their rights in terms of Promotion of Access to Information Act, No. 2 of 2000 as Amended (“PAIA”), where applicable.

2. PURPOSE

- 2.1. Section 32(1)(a) of the Constitution of the Republic of South Africa provides that everyone has a right of access to information held by the state and any other person that is required for the exercise or protection of any rights.
- 2.2. Section 50 of PAIA gives effect to the constitutional right of access to any information held by a private body that is required for the exercise of protection of any rights. This manual has been prepared, as required by section 51 of PAIA for Curo.
- 2.3. This PAIA Manual is useful for the public to -
 - a) check the categories of records held by Curo which are available without a person having to submit a formal PAIA request;
 - b) have a sufficient understanding of how to make a request for access to a record of Curo, by providing a description of the subjects on which Curo holds records and the categories of records held on each subject;
 - c) know the description of the records of Curo which are available in accordance with any other legislation;
 - d) access all the relevant contact details of the Information Officer and Deputy Information Officer who will assist the public with the records they intend to access;
 - e) know the description of the guide on how to use PAIA, as updated by the Regulator and how to obtain access to it;
 - f) know if Curo will process personal information, the purpose of processing of personal information and the description of the categories of data subjects and of the information or categories of information relating thereto;
 - g) know the description of the categories of data subjects and of the information or categories of information relating thereto;

- h) know the recipients or categories of recipients to whom the personal information may be supplied;
 - i) know if Curo has planned to transfer or process personal information outside the Republic of South Africa and the recipients or categories of recipients to whom the personal information may be supplied; and
 - j) know whether Curo has appropriate security measures to ensure the confidentiality, integrity and availability of the personal information which is to be processed.
- 2.4. Where a request is made in terms of PAIA, Curo is obliged to release the information, except where PAIA expressly provides that the information may or must not be released.
- 2.5. The objective of this PAIA Manual is to outline a suitable approach and response to requests to access information and the essential procedural requirements attached to such requests. This PAIA Manual should be read in conjunction with the Protection of Personal Information Act 4 of 2013 (“POPIA”) and Curo’s Privacy Policy in respect of Personal Information requests.
- 2.6. This PAIA Manual informs requesters of procedural and other requirements, as prescribed by PAIA. It is important to note that section 9 of PAIA recognises certain limitations to the right of access to information, including, but not limited to:
- Limitations aimed at the reasonable protection of privacy;
 - Commercial confidentiality; and
 - Effective, efficient, and good governance.

Further to this, PAIA recognises the act of balancing a right to request information with any other right, including such rights as contained in the Bill of Rights¹.

¹ The Constitution of the Republic of South Africa, 1996 - Chapter 2: Bill of Rights.
